COMLUX PRESS RELEASE

Indianapolis, 17 October 2023

COMLUX SELLS 2 ADDITIONAL ACJ TWOTWENTY ADDING MORE ACTIVITY TO ITS CABIN COMPLETION LINE

Comlux is pleased to announce that it has received two additional ACJ TwoTwenty orders to be completed by Comlux Completion.

Christophe Pelet, Head of Comlux Transactions said : “We are proud to count these two new TwoTwenty orders, days before our US cabin completion facility receives its third ACJ TwoTwenty directly from Airbus Canada. These two additional aircraft were sold to two different clients, who selected the TwoTwenty for its incomparable cabin comfort and aircraft performance. Operation of the first ACJ TwoTwenty by Comlux Aviation has proven excellent with an amazing in-service experience. The combination of the Airbus airframe, the Pratt & Whitney engines and the Comlux cabin has really resulted in the creation of a “champion” of the business aviation.”

The ACJ TwoTwenty cabin completions will be performed at Comlux Completion in Indianapolis, Indiana as part a partnership with Airbus. After delivery of the first ACJ TwoTwenty earlier this year certified by EASA, the second is to be delivered fully completed in February next year, and the third one is arriving in few days to start the cabin installation. Comlux can accommodate up to six cabin completions per year, in addition to its VIP cabin line and MRO business line.

Adam White, CEO Comlux Completion said” “I am delighted to welcome these new customers into our rapidly expanding ACJ TwoTwenty family. Seeing is believing, and I am very happy to have the first of this game-changing products here at NBAA on static. I am fully confident that the ACJ TwoTwenty is at the beginning of a very successful story.”
